For 35 years, ASHI has closely partnered with the finest independent jewelers throughout North America. We are proud to present the latest designs for our luxurious Collection, Couture by ASHI. Each of these designs blends old world artistry with modern design aesthetic to bring an exquisite piece of art to life. Our passion for beautiful designing and using the highest quality materials that nature provides is evident in each piece of jewelry we handcraft.

You would be hard pressed to find any of these designs online, and that's just the way we like it. In a where retailers find themselves competing with the very brands in their stores, we've chosen to go against the grain and We have set this exclusive Collection apart so that our retail partners can brand them as their own and build their own brand.
