*We're
family owned and operated since 1958. Ramsey's is here to serve you no matter what.
Serving you best is how we became the Largest Diamond Store in Louisiana.*

Dear Friends,

When Hurricane Betsy hit in 1965, Bob Ramsey moved his kids, Robert and Lori, into his jewelry design studio on the third floor of a brick building downtown.

Bob Ramsey was a lot like you. You love people, and people love you. Your friends depend on you. You believe in having a good time, but when times are tough, you become even tougher. That's because you are from Louisiana, and Louisiana is a state of mind: resilient, reliable, and resourceful.

COVID hit the whole world, but Hurricane Ida hit Louisiana at 150 miles per hour. Ida is gone now, but you are still here, and Ramsey's is still here.

Christmas is that time of year when we celebrate the wonderful things we have been given. This year we (Robert, Lori, and Bob's grandson Bobby) are celebrating two wonderful gifts.

One of those is our staff. When COVID hit, we told our staff they could stay home, but they said, "Our clients left rings to be sized and jewelry to be repaired, so we need to be in the store when they come to pick it up. School and sporting events have been cancelled, but love has not been cancelled."

They told us the same thing after Hurricane Ida. Our store was one of the first to reopen. We looked at each other and said, "What did we ever do to deserve people like these?"

The other gift we are celebrating is you. No matter which way the wind is blowing, you never change. You are forever looking for ways to show your affection, devotion, and love for the special people in your life. A worldwide pandemic can't stop you, and a hurricane barely slows you down. You are resilient, reliable, and resourceful. We are proud to know you.

Best Wishes,

Robert, Lori, and Bobby Ramsey

Cindy Mitchell

Eric purchased Cindy's engagement diamond from Ramsey's in 1992. Every year since, Eric has purchased her Christmas, Anniversary, and Birthday gifts from Ramsey's! All her pieces are beautiful, and she continuously receives compliments! For their 25th Anniversary, Lori Ramsey found the perfect gift of an ornate filigree diamond pendant, and it is her favorite piece of jewelry she has received from Eric and Ramsey's. Cindy has been in the insurance industry for over 34 years. She enjoys spending time with family and friends and traveling.

Why Most Diamonds Are Cut Badly

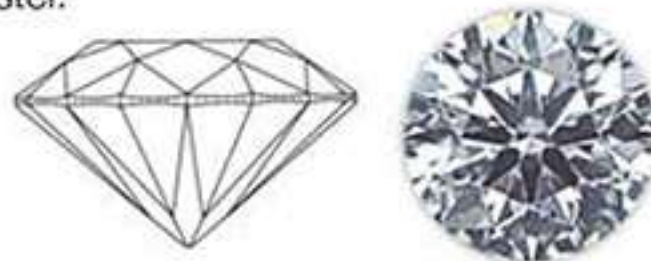

It's not hard to cut a diamond for maximum brilliance, dispersion, and scintillation. As a matter of fact, it's easy. Every diamond cutter can do it. So why are more than 99% of all diamonds in America cut badly?

Gold sells for less than 2 thousand dollars an ounce, so if you were given a one-ounce cube of gold and told to carve it into any shape you want, I'm betting you would leave it as a cube, right?

One ounce of average quality, one-carat diamonds is worth 765 thousand dollars. If you were a diamond cutter, how much diamond would you want to cut away at 765 thousand dollars an ounce? Keep in mind that cutting a diamond doesn't change its color or clarity; it simply reduces its weight.

Most diamonds are fat and deep because diamonds are sold by weight — carat weight — so diamonds with tall crowns, deep pavilions, and thick girdles sell for a lot more money.

These poorly cut diamonds just don't sparkle like a diamond should because they send all the light out the sides. To see what diamonds are supposed to look like, come to Ramsey's, where every diamond is cut for maximum sparkle, brilliance, dispersion, scintillation, and luster.

Excellent Cut Diamond

Poorly Cut Diamond

Our secret is simple: Ramsey's pays immediate cash to the diamond cutters. Most stores ask for payment terms, hoping to sell those diamonds to their customers before they have to pay the diamond cutters.

Ramsey's gets to choose first from all the freshly cut diamonds because we pay cash immediately. First choice allows us to select only the best diamonds. The rest go to those jewelry stores that, in our opinion, hold on a little too tightly to their cash. Ramsey's prefers having less money in our bank account and better diamonds in our showcases.

We hope you agree with our decision.

Earth-Grown & Created Diamonds: Explained

Earth-grown diamonds were created when the earth was still piping hot, and magma was flowing up to the surface through fissures in the rock called pipes. That ancient lava is now called kimberlite, and those ancient pipes are now called diamond mines.

Created diamonds are born in a plasma chamber inside a miniature sun. Plasma is not a solid, a liquid, or a gas. It is the rarest substance on earth, but the most common substance in the universe.

A bolt of lightning is made of plasma, as is our sun and all the stars.

Earth-grown diamonds are classified into 4 different types, but the most desirable is Type 2a because they are the most chemically pure and can be polished to the most glistening finish. Although less than 2% of diamonds from mines are Type 2a, 100% of plasma-created diamonds are Type 2a.

Created diamonds are not diamond simulants. Created diamonds are chemically, structurally, and optically diamonds. The advantage of created diamonds is that quality-for-quality, you can purchase a significantly bigger diamond for the same price as a smaller diamond from a diamond mine.

Evidently, it is less expensive to create a miniature sun—a ball of lightning—than it is to dig deep into the heart of the earth.

Ramsey's has all the different sizes, shapes, and colors of both earth-grown diamonds from diamond mines and created diamonds from plasma chambers.

Compare them side-by-side and buy the one that your heart tells you is yours.

Ramsey's gives you choices because we are here for one reason, and that reason is you.

Francesca and Lucien Gauff

Francesca and Lucien were married February 20, 2021, and they purchased their wedding rings from Ramsey's. Francesca, a native of Louisiana, moved back after living in Dallas for over 32 years. Francesca took early retirement from Sabre Travel Network to return home after working over 32 years. She loves to shop, travel, spend time with friends and is looking forward to working more closely in the community.

The majority of my fine jewelry was purchased by my husband from Ramsey's. Each piece represents a special moment in our relationship. When I wear a piece, it brings me back to that time, our story, our life together and our future. I'm always happy when I see that blue & silver box.

Ramsey's Offers Choices & Custom Design

White gold, yellow gold, rose gold, platinum, or silver?

Diamonds dug from a diamond mine or diamonds created in a plasma chamber?

At Ramsey's, you get to choose.

When it comes to ring styles, Ramsey's has essentially every style of engagement ring that has ever been designed. When other stores talk about their extensive ring selection, they are counting all the styles of rings they can special-order for you from the catalogs they keep in the back. At Ramsey's, we have all those rings in our showcases.

Additionally, our custom-design department can make or modify any style of ring in any way you choose, so that it becomes one of a kind, just like you.

Keep Your Eye on this Emerging New Trend

The new trend that is sweeping across America today is big Anniversary Diamonds. An Anniversary Diamond is any diamond at least twice as big as the one in her engagement ring.

Why twice as big? Because you love her twice as much today as the day you married her.

Big Anniversary Diamonds can replace the diamond in the engagement ring, be mounted in a brand new ring, or be worn as a pendant or a pair of earrings. It's entirely up to you. The only thing that matters is the message: "I love you twice as much today as the day I married you."

Do you own a diamond you bought from Ramsey's? Trade it in! Ramsey's will credit you with 100% of your guaranteed trade-in value when you spend at least 50% more on another diamond.

Do you have a pair of diamond stud earrings you bought from Ramsey's? Do they look smaller today than when you first bought them? This is known as "Shrinking Diamond Syndrome," and Ramsey's trade-up policy is the only known cure. We will credit you with 100% of your guaranteed trade-in value when you spend at least 50% more on a larger pair of diamond studs. You can do this over and over, as often as you like.

It won't be long before women look at your earrings with big eyes and whisper to you, "Are those real?"

We let you trade in your Ramsey's diamond stud earrings for bigger ones because no one ever wears smaller diamonds when they have bigger diamonds in the jewelry box.

Together Forever

Two hearts are intertwined with a center diamond that represents all that is shared by the two of you: your children, your past, and your future together forever.

Amy and Dr. Trey Palmisano, DDS

Amy and her husband Trey will be married for 21 years at the end of the year. Trey bought Amy her first "promise ring" from Ramsey's in high school. From then on, every piece of jewelry has been sold to them by Bobby Ramsey at Ramsey's. They also love to buy pieces of jewelry for their daughters at Ramsey's.

Trey is a dentist in River Ridge and grew up with the Ramsey boys. Amy loves to volunteer at school and spend quality time with her family.

Trey bought Amy a "push present" ring after the birth of each of their children, Egan, Embry, Eliza, and Easton. The rings are alternating colored diamonds of that child's birthstone color and clear diamonds. This ring stack is Amy's favorite piece to wear!

Nola Collections

The love of what makes New Orleans home is what inspired Lori Ramsey to design these collections celebrating the landmarks, symbols, and wildlife of New Orleans.

Grace Bergeron

Grace Bergeron, daughter of Chi Bergeron (Page 26), is 16 years old and is enjoying her high school years. "Unlike my mother, I came out the womb with pearls on my neck. I believe that accessories are the windows to someone's personality. You can never have too much jewelry on. 'When in doubt, add another piece' is my fashion motto. I may have a lot of meaningless jewelry, but my most cherished pieces are the ones that are the highest of quality and the most sentimental."

I Love You to the Moon n Back !

This exclusive collection was designed by Lori Ramsey for her daughter, and each piece features a crescent moon and heart to symbolize the astronomical love that makes us say "I love you to the moon and back."

Each of the pendants is engraved with this message on the back.

Three Generations

Virginia and her husband have been friends with the Ramsey's family since they bought their first diamond from the store 40 years ago. Since then, they have upgraded their rings and earrings and have passed their original diamonds down to their daughter and granddaughter. What makes Ramsey's fine diamond jewelry so special is that it can be cherished for life and passed down for many generations.
